

Viliami Makamaile Tu'akoi

December 14, 1924 - January 18, 2014

Born: Dec. 14, 1924 Died: Jan. 17, 2014

Viliami Makamaile Tu'akoi, son of Paula Fe'ofa'aki Tu'akoi and Fipe Taeao Fehoko Motu'apuaka. He passed away quietly surrounded by his family. Viliami was loved very much by his posterity. He was faithful in his callings and counted a blessing to belong to the True Gospel of Jesus Christ. He shared many talents with his children and grandchildren in Singing, speaking, dancing, giving all that he has to help others, but very famous for his Faikakai Lolo. He was a very hard working man to provide for his family and neighbors. We will miss his handsome infectious smile. His last council to his family is to "Love one another, Listen to the leaders of the church and Endure to the end, the only way to return and be together again. Married to: Lisia Vea (1944-1959), Mele Hosea (1960-1989), Noma Bloomfield
