

Wallace Dean Johanson

May 27, 1944 - January 4, 2025

Wallace “Dean” Johanson passed away on January 4, 2025, at the age of 80. Born on May 27, 1944, in Ogden, Utah, Dean was the son of Wallace and Coral Johanson. He was preceded in death by his parents, and sisters Janice Hyde and Kayleen Johanson.

Dean is survived by his son, Darren Johanson, siblings Coralee Norr, DeeAnn Beare, Gayleen Johanson, and Kevin Johanson.

Dean proudly served in the United States Army reserves for 15 years, during which he traveled and served in many roles.

Dean also worked in construction and worked for 35 years at Defense Depot Ogden and Hill Air Force Base. While at Hill, he was foreman over several different shops before retiring at age 55.

Dean married Sally Evans and they had one son together, Darren Johanson.

Dean also developed a love for horses and taught many others to share his love for them. He was active in breeding, training, and racing horses for many years.

After retirement, Dean moved from Roy, Utah to Ennis, Montana to continue his passion for horses full-time. He also developed an interest in woodworking and built and shared many of his crafts.

Dean leaves behind deep connections with those who knew him. His warmth, kindness, and unwavering support will be profoundly missed by his family, friends, and all whose lives he touched.

There will be a family graveside service with military honors at the Willard City, Utah cemetery at 1:00 pm on January 17, 2025.
