“ Dear Robbins family,
I had the most beautiful visit to your home to visit Erin one winter and was able to meet your father. A beautiful memory of him that I have is how him & Jeffrey were playing the piano together right before I was going to head back to California, And Erin showed me his incredible paintings. I love you guys so much & are truly such a unique beautiful family with a good heart. Erin would always tell me the best stories about how her father taught her how to break a horse & the adventures living on the farm. What I remember about Mr. Robbins was his warmth & gentle smile when I was around him. Sending you all of my love to one of the most wonderful families I have known in my lifetime. You all are an inspiration to me & hope to embody the values and love you all have.

“ Wes lived with us for a short time when I was young. I was interested in art and he spent time teaching me to paint trees in watercolor. I have fond memories of those experiences and his never ending humor. My love to the family!

“ Wes befriended me when we moved to Santaquin in 1980. He taught me the ropes to hunting and fishing around the area. He was a kind hearted man of great integrity. Wes and Lynn and their family were great friends to Patsy and me, and always hosted the best New Years Eve parties.

We love and appreciate the Wes and Lynn Robbins family.
