“ My love for horses, being a country girl, being kind and humble I learned from my big brother Bill. He was my brother, my friend, my confidant, my ally, and so much more. He will be missed but never forgotten. I love you Bill❤️❤️

“ I didn't see Bill often through the years, but when we were together at family reunions or visits, I remember his quiet and kind spirit. Our last visit was in Boise, when he brought his mother Edna to visit my mother, Mildred, her sister. Butch and I had been staying with mom for several weeks, so we were included in the visit. It was a very special time, as we laughed, retold memories, and watched our mothers enjoy their time together. Goodbye, cousin Bill. Love you, Janis and Butch
